

More heaven on earth

The Church of Norway is a confessional, open, serving and missionary folk church, witnessing in words and deeds about salvation, freedom and hope in Jesus Christ.

Strategy of the Church of Norway for 2022-2029	 The church opens up spaces for faith	 The church is where life is lived	 The church means more for more people
 The church for the individuals	Preaches the Gospel to people throughout their whole life	Strengthens the church as a cultural arena and manager of a cultural heritage for all generations	Provides a sense of belonging and creates good places for encounter and physical and digital fellowship
 The church in society	Promotes values that challenge as well as build a good society for everyone	Contributes to realising the sustainability goals – on a local, national and global level	Prevents exclusion and explores new ways of being a church
 The church as an organisation	Through its organisation strengthens a lively, accessible and present folk church	Interacts with organisational life, other religious communities and churches, public, private and non-profit actors	Creates a diverse, recruiting and inclusive workplace and platform for volunteering
